

TAKEN WITH TRISTAN

1. What is the theme of this story?
2. How does the theme relate to your life?
3. Did you relate to any of the characters? Who and why?
4. If Sydney and Tristan were ducks, what would be their channel's names?
5. What was your favorite scene?
6. Which scene would you have cut?
7. If you went to a pet store during an adoption day, would you consider adopting a dog, cat, or would you spend your time in Fish Cove like Roman?
8. What is a fear you want to overcome?
9. Do you have a supportive friend, family member, or significant other who could help you overcome that fear? (I'm rooting for you!)
10. Who brought the best snacks to the club? If there are no snacks, what snacks do you wish you had? (No shade on the host. We're all busy . . .)
11. If this book had a theme song, what would it be?
12. Instead of answering these questions, what would you rather be doing?
13. Which characters do you hope will appear in Book 2?

Thank you for reading Taken with Tristan!

My goal is to bring a touch of happiness into someone's day and help them escape the hard times by providing something light, entertaining, and hopefully funny.

I hope this was the case for you.

See you in Book 2!
